Important Information About Your Appeal Rights

What if I need help understanding my denial?

Contact Liviniti at 800.710.9341 if you need assistance understanding your denial or our decision to deny you a service or coverage.

What if I don't agree with this decision?

You have a right to appeal any decision not to provide or pay for an item or service (in whole or in part).

Can I provide additional information about my claim?

Yes, you may supply additional information.

Can I request copies of information relevant to my claim?

Yes, contact Liviniti at 800.710.9341 to request copies free of charge. If you think a coding error may have caused this claim to be denied, you have the right to have billing and diagnosis codes sent to you.

How do I file an appeal?

Complete the Appeal Form on front and return to Liviniti secure fax or via mail.

Who may file an appeal?

You or someone you name to act for you (your authorized representative) may file an appeal.

What happens next?

If you appeal, we will review our decision and provide you with a written determination. If we continue to deny the payment, coverage, or service requested or you do not receive a timely decision, you may be able to request an external review of your claim by an independent third party, who will review the denial and issue a final decision.

What if my situation is urgent?

If your situation meets the definition of urgent under the law, your review will generally be conducted within 72 hours. Generally, an urgent situation is one in which your health may be in serious jeopardy or, in the opinion of your physician, you may experience pain that cannot be adequately controlled while you wait for a decision on your appeal. If you believe your situation is urgent, you may request an expedited appeal by following the instructions above for filing an internal appeal by contacting the Liviniti at 800.710.9341.
